

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. (1880) Dear [???

I was so very sorry to have you go off all alone feeling so unhappy tonight, and hope you felt better when you got into a nice warm carriage and wrapped the shawl and rug around you. It was hard to have to start off feeling so unwell but I am sure you will be thankful tomorrow. I send you some cards which you forget, I hope this is all you have left behind. I want to go on with my china painting now, so with very very much love, no more now.

Lovingly yours, Mabel.
